A collection of fabric swatches and a book is displayed on a brown woven mat. The swatches include a vibrant, multi-colored patterned fabric, a light-colored fabric with a large, abstract blue and purple floral print, and a light-colored fabric with a delicate, white floral print. A book with a white cover is also visible. Long, thin green palm leaves are scattered across the scene, adding a natural, organic feel. The overall composition is artistic and emphasizes texture and color.
